

I am for the proposal or any proposal that will help reduce or eliminate the requirement that call for amateurs to be able to send and receive the Morse code. In my opinion it is an outdated mode of communication and is a complete waste of time. I am an amateur extra class, so the change will not benefit me, but if amateur radio is to exist in the future the morse code requirement will have to go.

Sincerely;

Tom Hix....W4TH

---

Get MSN 8 and enjoy automatic e-mail virus protection.
<http://join.msn.com/?page=features/virus>